Open Road's Celebrity Weddings & Honeymoon Getaways

Synopsis

Imagine getting married at the sprawling ranch where Laurence Olivier and Vivien Leigh secretly wed, or honeymooning at the exclusive resort where Heather Locklear and Richie Sambora spent their first weeks as husband and wife. Now brides and grooms can wed, celebrate, and rendezvous at the same locations as their favorite celebrities with Open Road's innovative guide to Celebrity Weddings and Honeymoon Getaways. Elizabeth Borsting, a Los Angeles publicist, takes readers on location to the hotels and inns where luminaries past and present have said "I do" and where they've honeymooned. Included are the nation's most celebrated destinations, from posh coastal resorts to hidden country inns. This one-of-a-kind guide offers couples details on amenities provided by every hotel covered, what services they'll receive on their wedding day and how much they will cost, what kind of honeymoon they can expect, and a romantic itinerary for their sojourn. The book also features complete descriptions of wedding and reception venues and special honeymoon packages and services. And celebrity anecdotes with gossip on wedding day and honeymoon stays are provided as well, from star-studded guest lists to the exact rooms and suites occupied by the famous couples. More than seventy-five hotels and inns across the country are included. In addition to celebrity details, readers will also find a profile of each region covered, including a list of affordable nearby accommodations for the wedding party's out-of-town guests. Celebrity Weddings and Honeymoon Getaways will enable readers to live out their fantasies in style.
